standard packages

The standard wedding photography packages are setup to provide a good value for money offering to you.

Our standard packages enables everybody to have great wedding photos without breaking the bank.

These packages all include colour, black and white and sepia option of each high-resolution photo taken on your wedding day.

I will not only provide you with the various professionally printed photographs on offer but also provide you with all the high-resolution photos that was taken on a DVD disc for future printing.

I only shoot with professional Nikon camera equipment. There is also an option to rent in backup lighting equipment to ensure that we don't miss anything should the unforeseen happen.

All my packages includes post-production on all photographs to ensure that you are provided with the best possible photos of your wedding day.

Please have a look through the standard wedding packages on offer and let me know if I can customise any of them for you.

exclusive packages

Our exclusive wedding packages are aimed at those who want to invest in their wedding photographs.

With this range all backup equipment and studio lighting comes standard to ensure that even if it rains you will get the best possible wedding photos of your special day.

I also spend substantially more time in the post-production of your photos to ensure an even higher quality product.

With the exclusive range you not only pay for all the professional backup equipment and studio lights but also for all the additional time that is spent on your photographs in post-production.

Each wedding photo taken includes a black and white and sepia colour option.

Please have a look through the exclusive wedding packages on offer and let me know if I can customise or add to any of them.
